Subject: Par Pharmaceutical, Inc.

Par Pharmaceutical, Inc. (Par) is conducting a drug recall of the product below. Par has identified the potential for the presence of white, crystalline particulates which are comprised of component or components of the drug product formulation, principally dextrose and the Buprenorphine active component. The particulates are not free floating but rather adhered to the side and bottom of the glass vials. This recall is being conducted to the retail level.

Please immediately check your inventory, quarantine, discontinue distribution of the affected product, and contact your wholesaler for directions.
